Wayne County to Observe Halloween on October 31st

Wayne County, North Carolina - The County will officially observe Halloween on Tuesday, October 31, 2017 from 6 p.m. – 8 p.m. Sheriff Larry M. Pierce stated the Wayne County Sheriff's Office will have a heavier presence of deputies patrolling neighborhoods during this time. Residents wishing to participate should provide sufficient external lighting to welcome the trick-or-treaters. Residents not wishing to participate should leave external lighting turned off. Parents and guardians should accompany children at all times and are asked to respect property and property owners in all neighborhoods.
